On Monday, September 17th, 2018, the grades 4 through 8 students will be going to the Green Acres Leadership Centre for the day.

At Green Acres Leadership Centre, the students will participate in a variety of leadership and team building activities. Through a variety of activities, the students are "Challenged by Choice" to look within themselves and evaluate how they function in a group setting.

The students will leave E.J. Sand P.S. at approximately 9:00 am and will return for regular dismissal. All students must bring a lunch and come properly dressed for the weather (rain or shine). The students must wear running shoes on this day.

The cost of the trip is $25.00, which includes bus transportation, use of the facilities and the cost of the workshops. The school has subsidized the cost of busing.

In order to guarantee our attendance for this trip, we ask that you send the money, attached waiver and permission slip below by Friday, September 29th, 2017. You can pay using School Cash Online (available by Monday) or by cash/ cheque (made payable to E.J. Sand Public School).
